Annotation The complete, practical guide to deploying and managing iPlanet Servers. Building robust, scalable enterprise infrastructure using iPlanet technologies. Covers iPlanet Web Server, Directory Server, Messaging Server, Application Server, ECXpert, TradingXpert, and more. CD-ROM contains 60-day trial version of the iPlanet Application Server Enterprise Edition 6.0, including Web, directory, and application servers for Windows 2000/NT, Solaris, and Linux. This is the first complete guide to deploying e-Business solutions based on the Sun-Netscape alliance's iPlanet family of servers and related products. It offers comprehensive guidance on application design and configuration, demonstrating how to build a robust, scalable enterprise infrastructure using iPlanet technologies; define and manage business processes using iPlanet's ECXpert toolset; and deploy e-marketplace business applications using iPlanet's TradingXPert. Building SunONE Infrastructures begins with the absolute basics: understanding what iPlanet software can do, installing the iPlanet Application Server from the accompanying CD-ROM, and configuring the software. Drawing on his unparalleled experience supporting iPlanet products, Stacy Thurston offers step-by-step coverage of setting up a business application web site with iPlanet technology, focusing on key tasks. The book contains easy-to-understand technical overviews of each major iPlanet software package, including the Web Server, Directory Server, Messaging Server, and Application Server; as well as iPlanet's ECXpert tools for automating and managing processes across organizations and existing private networks. It also contains an extensive set of data flow diagrams and application designs intended to help analysts achieve their goals far more quickly. Previously announced in 4/02 catalog. Stacy Thurston is product manager for AOL-Time Warner/Sun-Netscape Alliance/iPlanet Products. He was formerly Netscape Technical Support Engineer supporting key business communication products such as ECXpert and TradingXpert, and an instructor specializing in Netscape/iPlanet products such as Web Server and Messaging Server.
